

SENATE BILL 3324
By Haynes

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 48, relative to the regulation of certain business organizations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 48, is amended by inserting Sections 2 through 10 of this act as a new, appropriately designated chapter thereto.

SECTION 2. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as, the "Tennessee Revised Nonprofit Limited Liability Company Act."

SECTION 3. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Act" means the Tennessee Revised Nonprofit Limited Liability Company Act;

(2) "LLC" means a limited liability company, whether foreign or domestic, that is formed under, that is subject to, or that has elected to be governed by, as applicable, the LLC Act, except where expressly indicated otherwise;

(3) "LLC Act" means the Tennessee Revised Limited Liability Company Act compiled in chapter 249 of this title;

(4) "Nonprofit corporation," means a nonprofit corporation, whether foreign or domestic, incorporated pursuant to or subject to the provisions of chapters 51-68 of this title and exempt from franchise and excise tax as not-for-profit as defined in §67-4-2004;

(5) "Nonprofit LLC" means an LLC that has complied with the requirements of this chapter;

(6) "Parent nonprofit corporation" means a nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of a nonprofit corporation;

(7) "Prior Act" means the Nonprofit Limited Liability Company Act of 2001, compiled in chapter 101, part 7 of this title; and

(8) "Subsidiary nonprofit corporation" means a nonprofit corporation, the sole member of which is also a nonprofit corporation.

SECTION 4. The LLC Act shall apply to nonprofit LLCs, both domestic and foreign, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter.

SECTION 5. A nonprofit corporation may form a domestic nonprofit LLC that meets the requirements of Section 6 by filing articles of organization with the secretary of state that prominently designate it as a nonprofit LLC and that comply with the LLC Act. A foreign nonprofit LLC may obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state under the LLC Act and thereby become subject to and governed by this chapter as a nonprofit LLC only if the foreign nonprofit LLC meets the requirements of Section 6.

SECTION 6. A domestic or foreign nonprofit LLC under this chapter must:

- (1) Be disregarded as an entity for federal income tax purposes; and
- (2) Have as its sole member a nonprofit corporation, whether foreign or domestic, that is incorporated under or subject to the provisions of chapters 51-68 of this title and that is exempt from franchise and excise tax as not-for-profit as defined in §67-4-2004(25).

SECTION 7.

(a) The standards of conduct established in §§48-58-301, 48-58-302, 48-58-303, 48-58-304, and 48-58-403 that are applicable to the directors, officers, employees and agents of the nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of a domestic nonprofit LLC shall likewise apply to the directors, managers, officers, employees and agents, as applicable, of the domestic nonprofit LLC.

(b) The indemnification provisions of title 48, chapter 58, part 5 that are applicable to the directors, officers, employees and agents of the nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of a domestic nonprofit LLC shall likewise apply to the directors, managers, officers, employees and agents, as applicable, of the domestic nonprofit LLC.

(c) The limitation of actions and immunity from actions provided in title 48, chapter 58, part 6 that are applicable to the directors, officers, trustees and members of the nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of a domestic nonprofit LLC shall likewise apply to the directors and managers, as applicable, of the domestic nonprofit LLC.

(d) The attorney general and reporter shall have such authority, rights and obligations over nonprofit LLCs as the attorney general and reporter have over nonprofit corporations pursuant to chapters 51-68 of this title.

(e) If the nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of a domestic nonprofit LLC is a "private foundation" as defined in §509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor provision thereof, the requirements of §48-51-501 shall likewise apply to the domestic nonprofit LLC.

SECTION 8. Consistent with §67-4-2007(d) for excise tax purposes and §67-4-2106(c) for franchise tax purposes, a nonprofit LLC shall be disregarded as an entity separate from the nonprofit corporation that is the sole member of the nonprofit LLC for purposes of all state and local taxes. The nonprofit LLC shall file annual reports and other filings with the office of the secretary of state as required of all LLCs.

SECTION 9.

(a) A subsidiary nonprofit corporation incorporated in this state may be converted to a domestic nonprofit LLC pursuant to this section.

(b) The terms and conditions of a conversion of a subsidiary nonprofit corporation to a domestic nonprofit LLC must be approved by the board of directors of the subsidiary nonprofit corporation and the parent nonprofit corporation.

(c) After the conversion is approved under subsection (b), the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of conversion that satisfies the requirements of §48-249-703 of the LLC Act and articles of organization that satisfy the requirements of Section 5. Such certificate of conversion shall prominently designate the LLC as a nonprofit LLC and shall also include:

(1) A statement that the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation is being converted to a nonprofit LLC;

(2) The name of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation and the address of its principal office; and

(3) A statement that the terms and conditions of the conversion have been approved by the board of directors of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation and the parent nonprofit corporation.

(d) The conversion is effective when the certificate of conversion is filed with the secretary of state or at any future effective date or time if specified in the certificate of conversion. The filing of a certificate of conversion with the secretary of state, in compliance with this section, shall constitute and, for purposes of chapter 64 of this title, be deemed to be articles of termination of corporate existence of the subsidiary nonprofit corporation.

(e) When any conversion of a subsidiary nonprofit corporation to a domestic nonprofit LLC has become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of this state:

(1) The domestic nonprofit LLC shall be deemed to be the same entity as the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation;

(2) All of the rights, privileges and powers of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation, and all property, real, personal and mixed, of and all debts due to the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation, shall be and remain vested in the domestic nonprofit LLC and shall be the property of the domestic nonprofit LLC;

(3) Title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the converting nonprofit subsidiary corporation shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this section;

(4) All rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation shall be preserved unimpaired;

(5) All debts, liabilities, and obligations of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation shall remain attached to the domestic nonprofit LLC, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities, and obligations had originally been incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as a domestic nonprofit LLC;

(6) Any action or proceeding pending against the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation may be continued against the domestic nonprofit LLC as if the conversion had not occurred; and

(7) The rights, privileges, powers and interests in property of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation, as well as the debts, liabilities, and obligations of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation, shall not be deemed, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred to the domestic nonprofit LLC for any purpose of the laws of this state.

(f) The converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation shall not be required to wind up its affairs or to pay its liabilities and distribute its assets, and the conversion of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation to the domestic nonprofit LLC shall not be deemed to constitute a dissolution of the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation.

(g) The ownership interests or membership of the parent nonprofit corporation in the converting subsidiary nonprofit corporation shall become membership interests in the domestic nonprofit LLC.

SECTION 10.

(1) The provisions of this chapter apply to:

(A) Every domestic nonprofit LLC formed on or after July 1, 2006;

(B) Any domestic nonprofit LLC that was formed prior to July 1, 2006, and that has elected to be governed by the LLC Act pursuant to §48-249-1002.

(2) If there are other specific statutory provisions that govern the formation of, impose restrictions or requirements on, confer special powers, privileges or authorities on or fix special procedures or methods for special categories of LLCs, then to the extent such provisions are inconsistent with or different from this chapter, such provisions shall prevail.

(3) A domestic nonprofit LLC that was formed between December 31, 2005, and July 1, 2006, may elect to be governed by the LLC Act pursuant to §48-249-1002 to the same extent as a domestic nonprofit LLC that was formed prior to January 1, 2006.

(b) Any domestic nonprofit LLC that was formed prior to July 1, 2006, under the Prior Act and that does not voluntarily elect to be governed by the LLC Act as provided in subsection (a) shall continue to be governed by the Prior Act.

(c) The provisions of this chapter apply to every foreign nonprofit LLC that first files an application for a certificate of authority under the LLC Act on or after July 1, 2006. With respect to each foreign nonprofit LLC that first filed an application for a certificate of authority prior to July 1, 2006, the Prior Act shall apply to such foreign nonprofit LLC until the due date of the first annual report required to be filed by such foreign nonprofit LLC on or after July 1, 2006, after which due date this chapter shall apply to such foreign nonprofit LLC, except that such foreign nonprofit LLC shall not be required to obtain a new certificate of authority.

(d) This chapter does not affect an action or proceeding commenced or right accrued under the Prior Act.

SECTION 11. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-102, is amended by deleting the first sentence of subdivision (2) and by substituting instead the following:

“Articles” or “articles of organization” means, in the case of an LLC, articles of organization or, to the extent applicable with respect to an LLC initially formed under and governed by the Tennessee Limited Liability Company Act, compiled in chapters 201-248 of this title, articles of conversion, taken together with all of the following, to the extent they modify, correct, restate or otherwise affect the articles of organization or articles of conversion: articles of amendment, articles of correction, certificates of merger and all documents required to be filed with any of the articles of amendment, articles of correction and certificates of merger, as part of the formation and continuation of an LLC.

Any action alleging breach of fiduciary duties by members, managers, directors or officers, including alleged violations of the standards established in §48-249-403 or §48-249-404, must be brought within one (1) year from the date of such breach or violation; provided, that in the event the alleged breach or violation is not discovered nor reasonably should have been discovered within the one-year period, the period of limitation shall be one (1) year from the date such was discovered or reasonably should have been discovered. In no event shall any such action be brought more than three (3) years after the date on which the breach or violation occurred, except where there is fraudulent concealment on the part of the defendant, in which case the action shall be commenced within one (1) year after the alleged breach or violation is, or should have been, discovered.

SECTION 30. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-503(b)(1), is amended by inserting the following language at the end of that subdivision:

A provision in the LLC documents that negates any right of a member to terminate the member's membership interest shall also automatically negate the corresponding power of the member to terminate the member's membership interest unless the corresponding power of the member to terminate the member's membership interest is expressly reserved. Any attempted termination of a member's membership interest as to which the power to terminate has been negated shall be null and void.

SECTION 31. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-503(b)(2), is amended by deleting the language "family member's membership interest or financial rights" at the end of the second sentence and by substituting instead the language "membership interest or financial rights of a member of a family LLC".

SECTION 32. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-504, is amended by designating the current language as subsection (a) and by inserting the following as a new subsection (b) thereto:

(b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to provide a member with the power to terminate such member's membership interest if the LLC documents negate or, pursuant to §48-249-503(b)(1), are deemed to negate such power.

SECTION 33. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-508(a), is amended by inserting the language ", 48-249-507" between the language "48-249-506" and the language "and this section".

SECTION 35. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-610(a)(2), is amended by deleting the word “Section” and by substituting instead the word “Sections”.

SECTION 36. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-611(d), is amended by deleting the language “subsections (b) and (c)” and by substituting instead the language “subsection (b) or (c)”.

SECTION 37. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-702(b), is amended by inserting the following language at the end of that subsection:

Notwithstanding the absence of any express provision in the Uniform Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 1, permitting or authorizing a partnership formed under that act to merge with or into an LLC, a partnership formed under the Uniform Partnership Act is authorized to merge with or into one (1) or more LLCs upon the approval by all of the partners of the partnership or by the number or percentage of partners specified for merger in the partnership agreement of the partnership.

SECTION 38. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-702(c), is amended by deleting the current language in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(c)

(1) The agreement or plan of merger shall be approved on behalf of any domestic LLC that is a constituent party to the merger, by:

(A) A majority vote of the managers, if the LLC is a manager-managed LLC, or a majority vote of the directors, if the LLC is a director-managed LLC; and

(B) A majority vote of the members, whether the LLC is a member-managed LLC, a manager-managed LLC or a director-managed LLC.

(2) In the event a domestic LLC merges with or into a domestic or foreign partnership or limited partnership and the partnership or limited partnership is the surviving entity, the agreement or plan of merger shall be subject to the approval of any member or holder of the domestic LLC who, at the effective date or time of the merger, becomes a partner of the domestic or foreign partnership or a general partner of the domestic or foreign limited partnership, as applicable.

SECTION 39. The Tennessee Code Commission is requested to delete the subdivision heading designated for Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-702(k)(1), and to instead insert the same as the subsection heading designated for Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-702(k).

SECTION 40. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-703(b)(1), is amended by inserting the language “, date of formation” between the language “The jurisdiction” and the language “and type of entity”.

SECTION 41. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-703(g), is amended by inserting the following language at the end of that subsection:

Notwithstanding the absence of any express provision in the Uniform Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 1, or the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 2, permitting or authorizing a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act or a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act to convert to an LLC, each of a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act and a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act is authorized to convert to an LLC upon the approval by all of the partners of the partnership or limited partnership, as applicable, or by the number or percentage of partners specified for conversion in the partnership agreement of the partnership or the limited partnership agreement of the limited partnership, as applicable.

SECTION 42. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-703(h)(1), is amended by deleting the current language in its entirety and by substituting instead the following language:

(1) The conversion shall be approved in the manner provided by any document, instrument, agreement or other writing governing the internal affairs of the converting other entity and the conduct of its business, as appropriate, and if:

(A) The converting other entity is a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 1, or a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 2, in the manner provided for in subsection (g); or

(B) The converting other entity is other than a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 1, or a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 2, in the manner provided by applicable laws of the jurisdiction of the converting other entity; and

SECTION 43. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-249-704(b), is amended by inserting the following language at the end of that subsection:

Notwithstanding the absence of any express provision in the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, compiled in title 48, chapters 11-27, the Uniform Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 1, or the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, compiled in title 61, chapter 2, permitting or authorizing an LLC to convert to a corporation formed pursuant to the Tennessee

Business Corporation Act, a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act, or a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, an LLC is authorized to convert to a corporation formed pursuant to the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a partnership formed pursuant to the Uniform Partnership Act, or a limited partnership formed pursuant to the Tennessee Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act.
